SOMETHING ELSE TO DO.

(Boston Post.)

Some years ago, when the route of a railroad to Atlantic City was being surveyed and the men were driving stakes for full particulars regarding limits, through the premises of an old farmer, he addressed the leader of the gang as follows:

"Layin' out another railroad?"

"Surveying for one." was the reply.

"Goin' through my barn?"

"Don't see how we can avoid it."

"Wall, now. mister," said the worthy farmer, "I calkerlate I've got somethin tew say bout that. I want you tew understand that I've got sumthin else tew dew besides runnin out tew open and shet them doors overy time a train wants to go through."
